How to Choose an Availability Option

Texas A&M University's Policy

Your Electronic Thesis/Dissertation (ETD) will be made available immediately after graduation worldwide on the Internet via Texas A&M University Libraries unless you choose to delay release for publishing, patent or proprietary reasons.

Why would I choose "Journal Hold"?

If you are (or will be) submitting material to a journal that restricts Internet access to material prior to publication, a "Journal Hold" is the option you need to select. This gives you time to get published, and your ETD is released two years after graduation to the Internet. This hold may be extended one additional year if an email is sent before the initial hold ends to give you time to finish publishing your material. The title and abstract of the work are made available immediately via the Texas A&M University Libraries and ProQuest (for dissertations), but full text access is restricted during the embargo period.

What is a "Patent Hold," and when would I choose it?

If you have patent and/or proprietary reasons for having information in your ETD held from the public domain, TAMU will hold your document until your patent has been secured, or the proprietary restriction is no longer necessary.

What if I have more questions about availability options?

If you still have questions or concerns about availability options, please call (979) 845-2225, email us at thesis@tamu.edu, or drop by our office in Room 612, Sterling C. Evans Library.
